

THE DIGITAL CLASSROOM

The Digital Classroom is a five-day, residential workshop held at the Thacher School in Ojai. It is designed to provide professional development and online learning resources for teachers that are ready to make their classroom a place for 21st century teaching and learning.

Topics of Emphasis

- Standards-Based, Student-Centered Technology Integration
- Digital Tools & Content
- Podcasting
 - Integration of digital storytelling, video & photography
- Online Learning Resources
- Assessment & Showcasing Student Projects

Who: K-12 Teachers

When: Sunday, Jul. 27 - Friday, Aug. 1, 2008

Where: Thacher School, Ojai

Cost: $1,500 per attendee

Possible Funding Sources:

- EETT Formula and Competitive grants
- Education Technology K-12 Voucher Program
- Quality Education Investment Act (QEIA) of 2006
- Title 1

For More Information:

(562) 922-6216 or ctap@lacoed.edu

Register Online At: <http://ito.lacoed.edu/digitalclassroom>

Los Angeles County Office of Education
Leading Educators • Supporting Students • Serving Communities

INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNOLOGY
OUTREACH